Overview

Public Review of IRS Form 990

The Livestrong Foundation recently filed its annual tax return, Form 990, with the Internal Revenue Service. This annual filing not only fulfills an important compliance obligation, it also provides an opportunity to share information with our constituents and supporters. We take both objectives seriously. We believe a public charity has a responsibility to conduct its business in an open and fully transparent manner. Therefore, we readily share our tax filings with the public and our supporters.

Fulfill an Important Compliance Obligation

The form is required as an annual informational return by the IRS. It is extensive and requires financial as well as operational and governance information to be submitted in standardized formula and format, which allows for a level evaluation of an organization's programs and accomplishments.

With millions of non-profit organizations and public charities around the country, it is important to have a process to review information routinely and systematically encompassing the activities of tax-exempt organizations. This annual filing helps both oversight agencies and the general public evaluate the efficiency and effectiveness of operations and ensure they stay true to their charitable purpose. The vast majority of compliance related disclosures can be found on pages 3-6 of the tax return.

Provide Fully Transparent Information about the Foundation's Activities

Another valuable benefit is the opportunity to share information with the general public. While the form is not adequate as a single tool to evaluate an organizations total mission impact, it is still an important source of quantitative information for donors, clients, volunteers, fundraisers and the general public. There is also valuable commentary that can provide meaningful insight and context for information provided on the tax return.

The full tax return for 2020 is attached, but due to its lengthy and comprehensive nature, a few highlights are provided below:

- As reflected on page 1, the Foundation generated $1.4 million in total revenues. Further detail can be found on page 9 of the return and in Schedule G, page 2. The major revenue components are as follows:
 - Contributions and grants revenues represent $1.2 million.
 - Realized Investment Gains from our portfolio netted to $422,000.
 - Special Events conducted to generate both income and awareness generated $301,000.

 - The Foundation spent $7.7 million in expenses on mission and programs for the cancer community. This represents 82% of all expenses. The remainder was spent on development efforts and operational infrastructure. Additional detail (by expenditure type) can be found on page 10. The major accomplishments include:
 - Serving Individuals: In 2020, the Foundation served 350,000 clients (cancer survivors or their loved ones and caregivers) through phone navigation services by providing counsel and support in understanding treatment options, managing insurance and medical expenses, fertility preservation, clinical trial matching and access to emotional support services. Through these services, Livestrong helped its clients save more than $11 million in healthcare related costs.
 - Building Engaged Communities: Our community programs included Livestrong at the YMCA, a free or low-cost 12 week comprehensive physical activity and wellness program offered in over 800 YMCA branches in 42 states across the U.S., which has now served over 77,000 individuals; Livestrong at School, a free downloadable program for school professionals for grades K-12 to educate students about the effects of cancer in their community (which has been used by more than 136,000 teachers and has reached more than 4.1 million students); and the Livestrong Leader Program, a volunteer program with about 40 advocates nationally and globally focused on raising awareness, advocacy and fundraising.
 - Leading Systems Change: Since one of the most frequently-reported challenges faced by cancer patients and survivors is being overwhelmed by the very complicated and confusing cancer and healthcare system, Livestrong advocates for patient-centered care through research, advocacy and policy change. These efforts include funding for the establishment of the Livestrong Cancer Institutes at UT's Dell Medical School, an enterprise that puts patients at the center of radically changing, revolutionizing and reinventing the delivery of cancer care.

- In 2020, Livestrong’s fundraising and management expenses remained below 20% for the 25th consecutive year. These non-program expenses include essential costs of infrastructure to deliver on valuable program and fundraising initiatives. These investments are critical to providing continued funding for our mission, ensuring compliance with all laws and regulations, providing excellent governance, and investing in continued operational efficiencies and best practices. It is our continuous goal to keep non-program expenses sensibly low in order to funnel the most dollars to programs.
- The Foundation had 8 board members, 20 employees, and 1,939 volunteers in 2020 (page 1).
- Detail about the governing board and policies can be found on page 6.
- Select information about our board members, officers, employees, and independent contractors can be found on pages 7 and 8.
- Details about our assets and liabilities can be found on page 11. The Foundation ended 2020 with total net assets of $39.5 million, with $35.7 million in cash and investment accounts. This was a reduction of $7.9 million from the prior year.
- Supporting schedules of note include:
 - Schedules A and B provide certain detail about total public support and contributions
 - Schedule C gives insight into our government relations work
 - Schedule D has additional information about our investments and other assets.
 - Schedule G shows details regarding our fundraising professionals and activities
 - Schedule I includes a list of all grant recipients and their total awards
 - Schedule J details compensation information for certain officers and key employees.
 - Schedule O provides space to include supplemental information when space was not adequate elsewhere on the form.

We are happy to share Livestrong’s information with you and hope you will let us know if you have any questions.
