

Cervical Cancer

Cervical cancer begins when abnormal changes develop in the cells of the cervix. Cervical cancer is most frequently the result of human papillomavirus (HPV). Common treatments include surgery to remove the cancer cells, medicines such as chemotherapy and targeted therapy, and radiation. Worldwide, it is the fourth most common cancer for women. On average, the age of diagnosis for cervical cancer patients is younger than many other cancer types.

Cervical Cancer Resources

Living as a
Cervical Cancer
Survivor

Overview of Approach to Cervical Cancer
Survivors

Cervical Cancer
Survivors: The Experiences of the Journey

Cervical Cancer
Survivorship
Pamphlet

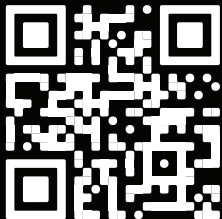

Cervical Cancer
Survivorship:
Long-Term Quality of Life and Social Support

General Cancer Resources

Whether you're a patient, survivor, or caregiver, Livestrong is here to help. Fill out our Cancer Resource Request Form and receive vetted resources relevant to your unique concerns. Through the support of our trusted partner We Are Here, we can help connect you with emotional support services, cancer mentorship matching, and organizations that can assist with financial, employment, and insurance issues. Get started at Lvstr.ng/GetHelp.

Resources for All Cancer Types

Livestrong
Guidebook

Tools for Your Cancer Journey

Family Reach

Financial Assistance

Patient Advocate Foundation

Personalized
Support

Imerman Angels

Peer Mentorship
Support

Livestrong
Fertility

Family-Building
Discount Program